

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

This programme is intended for students wishing to pursue a baccalaureate degree in elementary, middle or senior-level education at a recognised teacher education institution.

The programme features a common liberal arts core that spans the humanities, mathematics, social sciences, and natural sciences disciplines. In the second year of the programme, the core courses are supplemented with courses in the foundations of education, in human growth and development, and in the application of psychological principles to the teaching profession. In addition through the twelve elective credits, students intending to teach at the senior level are able to complete a concentration in one of the disciplines noted above.

As the programme includes opportunities for observations in private and public educational settings, students must submit the following:

- SCARS Certification
- Police Record Check
- Proof of Health Insurance
- Completed Medical Form
- Completed Ministry of Education Staff in Confidence Form
