

Rationale:

The informal survey is intended to be a fast way to provide immediate feedback to the advisor about his/her effectiveness and allows the advisor to adjust his/her approach or questioning techniques etc, if needed, during the actual session with the student

1. Did you accomplish everything you came here to do today?

Yes

No

If the answer is no, the advisor probes student to discover what they need, and then addresses the need.

2. Would you like a follow-up session?

Yes

No
